

NEWS ITEM – FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 12, 2009

AFRICAN AMERICAN GENEALOGY MEETING

The next meeting of the African American Genealogy Group of the Miami Valley (AAGGMV) will be held Saturday March 28, 1:00 p.m. at St Agnes Catholic Church's Computer Laboratory, 1619 California Ave., Cincinnati, OH 45237.

The topic will be “Genealogy Computer Searches,” accompanied with a workshop. Internet access will be available and one-on-one instruction and assistance will be made available to attendees. Approximately seven terminals will be in use.

Organizer for the meeting is Ms. Joyce Coleman, a longtime member of AAGGMV and well known volunteer with the genealogy department of the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center of Cincinnati.

The meeting is free and open to the public however attendees are urged to RSVP [notify] Joyce at jjc6@cinci.rr.com to aid in planning.

AAGGMV is a nonprofit service and educational organization devoted to promoting African-American genealogy and the study of black family history. Activities include genealogy lectures, networking, workshops, and support for documenting family history. Membership is open to everyone, and meetings are held monthly at various locations throughout Southwestern Ohio. Additional information can be found at the Web site: www.aaggmv.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 22, 2009

Contact: Robert L. Harris, African American Genealogy Group of the Miami Valley, P.O. Box 485, Yellow Springs, OH. (937)767-1949.
Email: rharris25@woh.rr.com